

ORCOM 199: Guidelines for the Oral Reports

Your class report is 5% of your final grade. Please be follow these guidelines.

1. Report duration: 10 - 15 minutes per chapter (not per person), except for the RRL report: 1 presentation only, 10 - 15 minutes
2. Required output: Oral presentation with a slide deck to be shared with the class (Alternative: Handout)
3. Assigned topics: This is the final list of assignments and schedules.

Reporting: Topic assignments and schedule

Date	TOPIC [CLASS MODE]	REPORTER
10/3 [T]	[F2F] Report 1: RRL	SAN JOSE, Alfonso & TSUKAGOSHI, Hikaru
10/6	[ONLINE] Report 2: Quantitative theory use Lecture: Qualitative theory use, Study frameworks	MACATANGAY, Aldrin [Teacher's lecture for the other topics]
10/10 [T]	[F2F] Report 3: Research design Report 4: Selecting a study design	ESPINO, Paula Andrae - report 3 DALIPE, Juliane, ESPIRITU, Eunice, LIVELO, Leanne Irish - report 4
10/11 [W]	[ONLINE] Report 5: Selecting a method of data collection Report 6: Selecting a sample	BARAQUEL, Diana, CRUZ, Jamie Joan, VELASQUEZ, Kirstein >> report 5 ANONUEVO, Jill & LANDICHO, Germaine >> Report 6
10/20	[ONLINE] Report 7: Introductory chapter	CHAN LUGAY, Bienne Marguarette >> report 7

4. Please be on time if you are assigned to report. If you are part of a group, please be ready to take over for teammates who are late or absent.
5. Make sure your presentation is saved in your device. Slide decks saved in websites (e.g. those on canva.com) are more prone to lagging.