

PFC Matrix Case Presentation Evaluation Tool

RATING SCALE:

3 = expected of a well-prepared student group

2 = minor deficiencies

1 = major deficiencies/unprepared

Patient-centered care
1. Gathered enough data to be able to rationalize the working impression/s
2. Analyzed the medical problems to arrive at a reasonable working diagnosis
3. Analyzed the psychosocial concerns of the patient
4. Provided appropriate management for the patient's problems
Family-oriented care
1. Gathered enough data to be able to present the family structure
2. Presented an accurate genogram
3. Identified the family life cycle and the impact of the medical condition
4. Identified how the family is coping in its current trajectory of the illness
5. Used a family medicine tool and discussed its significance
6. Gave an analysis of the family dynamics given the data gathered
7. Made an assessment of the family's medical problems
8. Made an assessment of the family's psychosocial concerns
9. Provided basic recommendations to address the identified problems above
Community-oriented
1. Provided a description of the community where the family belongs
2. Described available resources pertinent to the needs of the family
3. Assessed the social determinants the family is dealing with
4. Identify community related problems the family will have to deal with
5. Make recommendations on how to help the family avail of community resources
QUALITY OF PRESENTATION
1. Quality of visual aids used
2. Flow of the discussion and organization of content
3. Provided a summary matrix at the end of the presentation
4. Ability to answer questions after the presentation