

1

2

Proper mindset for the thesis defense

The critic is not out there to eat you.

3

Proper mindset for the thesis defense

The critic's comments and suggestions help further improve your research report.

4

Some reminders:

- ❑ Fill out the application form for thesis defense.
- ❑ Invite one faculty member to be your critic 5 – 7 days before the actual defense.
- ❑ Provide a copy of the abstract or full paper to your critic (whichever he/she prefers).
- ❑ Have copies of your instruments and data on hand.

5

What do you present?

Max. of three slides per chapter

6

What do you present?

- BRIEF introduction (about the topic leading to the research gap and/or research issue)
- Research Questions
 - General
 - Specific
- Significance of the Study
- Limitations of the Study
- Definition of Terms

7

What do you present?

- Framework
- Methodology
 - Design
 - Variables
 - Respondents
 - Sampling
 - Instruments
 - Data Gathering
 - Data Analysis

8

What do you present?

- Summary of Findings
- Conclusions
- Recommendations for further study

9

Additional instructions

1. Important dates
 - ✓ 10 May - Draft 1 of the manuscript
 - ✓ 23 May - Last day of defense
2. Mode: Online defense
 - a) Presentation: Pre-recorded, 20 min. max
 - b) Q and A: 15 – 30 min.
 - c) Zoom link and recording: Student's responsibility

10

Additional instructions

3. Revised thesis (post-defense): Soft copies only

- a) Suggestion: A shared drive for the whole batch for uploading final thesis copies
- b) Filename format: SURNAME.INITIALS_THESIS_YEAR, e.g.:
MICIANO.MZ_THESIS_2023
- c) File type: PDF
- d) Submit the link to the drive to the ff: (1) department staff
(jvpinga@up.edu.ph), (2) adviser, (3) library (eedelgado@up.edu.ph)