Revised Working Schedule for N-119 Public Health Nursing II: Weeks 6 and 7

Week	Date	Learning	Learning	Learning	Learning	Faculty
WOOK .	Date	Outcomes	Content	Activities	Deliverables	Faculty
6	Sept 24 Tue	Announcements: -Each section shall monitor their time (e.g. 10 minutes left, 5 minutes left, 3 minutes left, 1 minute left, Time's up) -Feedback shall be reserved at the end of every presentation -Sequence to be determined by drawing lots after every presentation -Kindly submit your code name -Ensure submission of Field Work Agreement form -Refer to the Guidelines for Presentation -Refer to the Evaluation Criteria for Peer Evaluation -A matrix for transportation availability is given to your faculty. Note that this is open for flexibility and adjustments.		PLENARY (Auditorium) 1:00-5:00 PM Presentation of Rapid Appraisal Results and Initial Problems and Population Groups Identified	[By Section: 15-minute presentation]	Dones, Delos Santos, Alejo, Garcia
	Sept 26 Thu	Explain the nature and scope of epidemiology Cite the importance of epidemiology Define terms used in epidemiology Discuss the methods in epidemiologic description of diseases and community response to etiologic factors Compare and contrast study designs in epidemiology Analyze selected epidemiologic study designs	Watch: 5. Epidemiology 1: Introduction to Epidemiology 6. Epidemiology 2: Epidemiologic Concepts and Principles 1 7. Epidemiology 3: Epidemiologic Concepts and Principles 2	PLENARY (Room TBA: Tentatively Seminar Room) 1:00-3:00 PM Epidemiology as a Public Health Discipline	Epidemiology Worksheet	Dones, Luz Barbara P.
		Explain the planning process Describe the components for planning community-based health programs and services Given specific cases, develop the following: Problem Tree Objective Tree Program Plan Formulate goals of care in terms of target groups and existing resources Specify goals into realistic objectives in terms of time and expected outcomes	III. The Community Health Nursing Process: Care of the Community as a Client (cont.) B. Planning: Developing a Program of Health and Nursing Services to Address Community Health Needs 1. Principles of Planning a. Green's PRECEDE-P	3:00-5:00 Discussion on Planning		Delos Santos, Jan Vincent T.

Week	Date	Learning Outcomes	Learning Content	Learning Activities	Learning Deliverables	Faculty
			ROCEED Model 2. Steps in Planning a. Goal and Objective Setting b. Determining Appropriate Strategies and Activities
7	Oct 1 Tue			(Seminar Room) 1:00-3:00 PM First Long Examination (15%) -Bring scientific calculator		Dones, Delos Santos, Alejo, Garcia
				3:00-5:00 PM - Discussion of Guidelines and Evaluation Criteria for Grading by the Faculty: Seminar on Current Problems, Trends, and Issues affecting PHN Practice (5%)		Garcia, Angely P.
			c. Identifying Constraints and Limitations d. Defining Criteria and Standards of Evaluation e. Resource Mobilization	- Discussion on Planning [By Section: - Data Collection Plan and Tool Development - Problem Tree Development - Objective Tree	Data Collection Plan and Tools Problem Tree Objective Tree	Delos Santos, Jan Vincent T.
	Oct 3 Thu	Discuss the roles of the nurse in implementing the community health program Describe specific application of various community	III. The Community Health Nursing Process: Care of the Community as a Client (cont.) C. Implementation: Meeting the Needs	PLENARY (Auditorium) [By Section: - Program Plan Development]	Program Plan	Delos Santos,

Week	Date	Learning Outcomes	Learning Content	Learning Activities	Learning Deliverables	Faculty
		health and development strategies and interventions • Given specific cases, determine the most appropriate strategies and activities in implementing community-based health programs	of the Population and Community through Health and Development Strategies 1. Roles of the Nurse 2. Types of Interventions and Strategies a. Supervision b. Caseload Management c. Capacity Building and Training d. Advocacy and Policy Work e. Network and Linkage-build ing f. Community Organizing 1. Purpose 2. Phases			Jan Vincent T. Alejo, Jeremiah Carlo V.

Then, refer back to the printed Course Guide given to you.